

MAKE HIGH SCHOOL WORK FOR YOU

Keynote: In this dynamic presentation, Job Talks Executive Director Dr. Jon Callegher will share his latest research on the emotional and experiential challenges facing young people today. He will reveal 5 research-backed reasons for why working in the skilled trades, especially in a post-COVID-19 world, is an ideal career option. He will also introduce the concept of “balanced intelligence” as a defining quality of tradespeople.

KPR Pathways: Want to make high school work for you? Learn about the amazing pathways programs available to students in secondary school. Cooperative Education, Dual Credits, Ontario Youth Apprenticeship Programs and Specialist High Skills Majors all give students additional training and learning opportunities to build their resume while in high school.
